

No One is Immune from Crisis

Be Prepared to Help

NOVA's 24-hour Advanced Level Community Crisis Response Training (CRT) builds upon the essential NOVA CRT protocols with current best practices.

This hands-on, practical training explains the intellectual foundations of the NOVA Crisis Response Team Training™ model and its application with differing populations. Special attention is given to working with youth and elderly. Other core areas in this training include understanding the significance of trauma and culture, team deployment, and working with the media.

Individuals interested in attending the NOVA ADVANCED CRT training must have already attended the NOVA BASIC Level CRT training.

One of the best trainings I have ever been to!
- Columbus, OH

Having my knowledge & experience re-framed & realigned in such a way that it all seems new again.
- Peoria, IL

I really enjoyed & learned from the presentations/activities. It got me out of my comfort zone & helped me learn & better my skills
- Bend, OR
