

Crisis Response Team

Supporting Communities Impacted by Incidents of Mass Violence, Natural Disaster, and Trauma

PURPOSE

NOVA's Crisis Response Team (CRT) provides immediate and short-term emotional support, coordination, and stabilization to individuals and communities impacted by mass violence, disasters, or other traumatic events. Our goal is to restore a sense of safety, connection, and hope while linking survivors to long-term recovery resources through direct services, planning and training.

Who We Serve

- Survivors and families of victims
- First responders and service providers
- Schools, workplaces, and communities affected by crisis
- Local governments and organizations requesting assistance

Our Approach

- Trauma-informed and culturally responsive
- Collaboration with local leadership, state and national partners
- Evidence-informed crisis intervention principles
- Emphasis on resilience, recovery, and community connection

Contact Us: CRT@trynova.org